Programs that we are providing to German students:

1. SAT Prep at Harvard Law School

Students from all over the world that want to study in top American universities have to take an exam known as the SAT, but this is not just any kind of exam. Admission committees pay close attention to SAT scores to make admissions and financial decisions. Scholarships in top American universities are extremely competitive and come in many forms (merit, academic-based or even based on the family's income) and they play an important role in the student's academic success. High SAT scores enable students to apply for Financial Aid at Ivy League universities and other prestigious institutions around the world. The higher the SAT score the higher the chance that the student be admitted to a top university anywhere in the world. Preparation is therefore the key. Ivy League Education's mission is to ensure that our students earn high SAT scores and gain admissions to the Ivy League schools of their choice. With that purpose, we have designed the Boston Summer Camp in Harvard which has enabled some of our students to study in Princeton, Cornell, Georgetown and other renowned international institutions. Our SAT teachers at the Summer Camp are Harvard graduates and specialized in different subjects. Dates: from June 20 to July 18, 2020.

2. SAT Prep Online (ZOOM, Skype) with Harvard & Princeton Grads

Any family in the world wants the best possible future for their children and families probably wonder what it takes for an international student to be admitted to one of the world's top universities in the US. And for this process to be successful, the student must obtain outstanding SAT scores. The higher the SAT score the higher the chance that the student be admitted to a top university anywhere in the world. Our company is always at the forefront of innovative education. With our SAT tutoring program, students will increase their intellectual ability and IQ. As a standardized test, the SAT has the same content anywhere in the world. Our SAT teachers who graduated from Princeton and Harvard have marked an inflection point in the preparation process. Our tutoring program offers preparation for multiple exams including the SAT, SAT Subject, ACT, GMAT and GRE.

Our students are getting some of the highest SAT scores in Europe

3. University Placement Assessment into top 200 worldwide located in the US or top 200 universities in the US out of 4000 schools overall.

Ivy League Education provides comprehensive US University admission advising and assessment services with a unique holistic and counseling approach to students and families worldwide that will make a difference when applying to the most renowned universities in America. Our ultimate goal is to help students gain admission to world-class American universities and to grant them a financial-aid package suitable for each family in accordance with the terms and conditions of a tailor-made agreement to which both parties subscribe.

Our expert team of academic advisers thrive to provide students and families an accurate read of their chances of being admitted by top notch universities while gaging their options of obtaining financial aid packages according to their academic merit profiles (SAT scores and high school grades) and by parents tax returns.

Our state-of-the-art customized Career Path proposal spells out a highly detailed course of action in terms of which universities are best suited to a particular student. Said University Career Path is designed in order to thoroughly meet the student's academic goals, the family's financial-aid budgeting, varsity athletic preferences, practical training opportunities, and school size and credo, among other parameters that will be paramount to creating the most appealing career path for students and families.

4. US University Visits

In Europe, the concept of family visits to American universities has not yet spread widely. It is of transcendental importance to choose the most suited American university for the future of our child. These visits to universities mark a before and after in the life of a student and their families.

North Americans have this type of visits scheduled on their agenda almost since their children are born and it usually takes place at the age of 14 during the freshman year. The American universities are full of teenage visitors with their families exploring beyond what the website describes about such academic institutions.

The program includes comprehensive academic counseling by Ramon Romero, Harvard graduated and President of the company. Itinerary of visits to the best American universities, depending on the objectives of the student or student/athlete. Direct contact with Deans of Admissions and/or with Coaches and sports teams.

Thanks to the programs mentioned above, our students are leading the most competitive standardized SAT scores at European level. The following University Placement results include some real samples which allow us to form an idea about the top quality of the universities where our students are going.
